

Women of Early Christianity

Originally published in 1908. An interesting book in which the author claims that the position of woman has been more influenced by Christianity than by any other religion. In the name of humanity that the Son of God had assumed, mankind was forced to treat men and women as on a spiritual equality. Author: Rev . Alfred Brittain Language: English Keywords: Social Sciences / Women / Christianity / History Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive.
