

You Can You Should Write Poetry

Deep in the heart of just about every one of us lies the urge to express ourselves in verse, and here at last is the book that will move us from urge to reality. In these pages Don guides you through every step of the versifying process, from gathering ideas and images to choosing the verse form for you, to putting lines together, refining them, and the big challenge of rhyming. He shows you how to put poetry to work in your life in every imaginable situation, for personal pleasure, to delight others, and even for profit. Above all, he will give you unshakable confidence and constant encouragement! 160 pages; illustrated
