

Charles Haddon Spurgeon (Classic Reprint)

The writing of this biography has been a labour of love with the author, and it is intended as a tribute of esteem and affection to Mr. Spurgeon. The author was a student in the Pastors College, and then and afterwards heard from Mr. Spurgeon sown lips many of the incidents that have since appeared in print. For every opinion advanced in the following pages the writer is alone responsible. Some difficulty was felt in dealing with the great abundance of materials that freely flowed in. Should this publication be met with a favourable reception, the author hopes to issue a larger and more complete work. He will be thankful if Mr. Spurgeon smany friends will supply him with incidents and facts that may enable him to present a more complete picture of the great preacher and of his work.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
