

Dragonlions and the Spacemen

On the blue planet Altea, live Giants and Dwarves. On the green planet Ardekon, live the immortal Dragonlions. The two planets felt very lonely in space and they looked for signs from other planets. One day, at exactly the same time, they received a message from each other. A magical and engaging children book, for children ages seven to eleven. The book is fun to read and teaches children the values of courage, friendship, and positive thinking by looking at the bright side of things. It does not matter how you look on the outside you can always be a friend. Laughter brings love and makes friends.
