

The ReExamined Life is a manifesto for those that are losing not only a job, but a career, and possibly the dream of retirement as well. It is a call to action for anyone who finds themselves facing unemployment and an uncertain future. It is a guidebook for the journey that begins the day the job is lost. It counsels the newly unemployed to not become victims, but to take control of their lives, to form a plan and to walk through the steps of finding a new job. Van Steenis gives hard-hitting advice on how all of us can all become more valuable, productive and content. He urges us to reclaim our heritage and become the Next Greatest Generation.
