

Dans cette histoire, Lochiel Cameron, un lieutenant de 25 ans dans le 42e regiment ecossais, doit escorter Elisabeth (Lizzie) Campbell d'Ayre a Edimbourg. Lizzie doit epouser Lord John Montgomery, second fils de Jonathan Montgomery, Duc de Rothford. Lord John deteste le fait qu'il a ete force de pousser Lizzie. La seule raison pour laquelle il n'annule pas ce mariage force, c'est qu'il deviendra le Marquis de Lorna et Kintyre a la mort de son pere, s'il respecte la promesse que son pere a faite a sa mere sur son lit de mort. Lizzie Campbell, fille de Barry Campbell, Baron d'Ayre, est capricieuse et arrogante. Quand elle comprend que Lord John ne voulait pas se donner la peine de l'accompagner lui-meme a Edimbourg, par vengeance, elle entame une relation avec Lochiel, qui continuera meme apres le serment de mariage entre elle et Lord John prononce devant l'autel. Apres s'etre conduit de facon debauchee avec Lizzie, Lord John retourne a Londres. Il laisse derriere lui a Edimbourg une Lizzie effondree, qui aurait presque ete une victime de son frere surnois, Lord Randolph, heritier du Duché, sans l'aide de sa fidele servante Mattie et l'inquietude de Lady Audrey Agnew, Comtesse de Loghaire. Lizzie doit fuir Edimbourg quand elle decouvre que ses nuits de passion avec Lochiel n'ont pas ete sans consequences.
