

Fireside Folklore of West Virginia

Fireside Folklore of West Virginia offers up ghosts, paranormal activity, haunted buildings and the legends they are born from. The Mothman, The Headless Ghost of Centralia, The West Virginia Penitentiary, UFOs, Gravestone Symbolism, Ghosts on the Battlefield, and Burnt House Haints are just a few of the locations and subjects covered in this new series by author Sherri Brake. This paranormal folklore guide is the first in a spellbinding series focusing on the states ghost stories, legends and haunted locations. 174 pages feature over 120 images including photographs and old folklore woodcuts. The 24 intriguing chapters are based on Sherri Brakes popular column appearing in West Virginias largest independent publication, Two-Lane Livin. Each story features extra details and photographs not seen in the original columns. Dim the lights, light a candle and enjoy.
