

PROSPERITY is the new book from entrepreneur, business mentor and former BBCTV Dragons Den Dragon Rachel Elnaugh. Rachel takes you on a journey from understanding the metaphysical principles behind money and how to align to your Ikigai or soul purpose, through the Black Hole of Debt, money shame and shadows, and back into the light - with lots of practical marketing advice on how to create the revenue streams and systems/structure to allow money to flow to you, effortlessly. The book is also a journal which sets you challenges at the end of each of the 42 chapters, allowing you to explore your relationship with money and shift your energy around it. The book is designed to be a co-creative collaboration between you and Rachel enabling you to transform your relationship with money, allowing it to easily show up in your life. Rachel Elnaugh is the award winning British entrepreneur who created the experiences company Red Letter Days at the age of 24, which she built from nothing on a shoestring budget into a multi-million turnover marketing leading brand. This led her to star as a Dragon in the first two series of BBCTV's BAFTA nominated business show Dragons Den. The fall of her company into administration in 2005 led Rachel on a journey of healing and discovery of metaphysics. She is now an inspirational speaker and business mentor who has helped thousands of people transform their relationship with money. In 2013 Rachel co-created the digital publishing and marketing platform SourceTV designed to help Thought Leaders, Transformational Coaches, Metaphysical Teachers and Evolutionaries get their messages of empowerment to a global audience. PROSPERITY is a summary of Rachel's key teachings around money, flow and abundance drawn from her years as a business mentor.
