

It doesnt take years of therapy and thousands of dollars to have a good marriage! In this book written with you, the man, in mind (Yes! It can be read in under an hour), Paul Elmore has taken his 11 years of working with men, women, and couples and clearly laid out the six essential tools any man, including you, can master to build a happy relationship with your wife. Using his O-R-E-G-O-N Model of Couples Relationships, Paul uses dozens of stories and practical, hands-on examples to give you a better picture of whats going on in your marriage and the things you can do to finally make it better. Just like a master carpenter can build a beautiful house with only six simple tools, you too can build a relationship that you can be proud of. But it doesnt happen automatically. Youve got to use the tools.
