

From a heart with a massive passion for great marriages comes a book that takes a practical, common sense, and down to earth look at marriage and how great it can be. Marriage is the biggest and the best adventure of them all. Its the adventure that lasts a life time and comes complete with action, adventure, love, loss and twists and turns along the way. How's your adventure of a life time going? Do you still burn with a passion for your marriage and for your mate? Are you still madly in love with your mate? This book addresses the issues faced in every marriage including talking, acts of kindness, fighting, the importance of your words, choosing to love your mate, children, appreciation and respect, sex, money and everything in between. For anyone who is married and wants to make their marriage better than it is presently, this book will give you a new and fresh perspective of the potential greatness in your marriage. Marriage can be loving, passionate, fulfilling, hot, caring, intimate, fun, an adventure, sexy, life-giving and the best decision you ever made. And it can most certainly be better than it is today. If you want an extraordinary marriage rather than an ordinary one you can have it, and this book will help you get it.
