

The Secret of People

The Secret of People is a non-fiction book in a narrative format, after the tradition of Og Mandino, that reveals the single most powerful motivator of humans: honor. The Secret of People unveils why people behave in dishonoring ways to each other and what we all seek and desire, to be treated with dignity, to be honored. There is also a leadership discussion/reflection guide in the back, so the book can be used for leader development.
